RECOMMENDATION LETTER

Dear Members of the Admissions Committee,

I am delighted to recommend Amalbek Bekpulatov, a senior student at the international double degree faculty of Tashkent State University of Economics (TSUE) with IMC UAS Krems, for the Bilkent University Graduate Program in Turkey, in support of the application to pursue graduate studies in International Business and Management at Bilkent University. Bilkent University, located in Ankara, Turkey, is a leading research university offering world-class programs in Business Administration and International Management. The university is well-known for its strong academic standards and commitment to international education and research excellence.

I have known Amalbek Bekpulatov for two years as his Professor at IMC Krems, where I taught him in Budgeting and Financial Management and Company Management Simulation courses.

During this time, I have been consistently impressed by Amalbek Bekpulatov's strong analytical skills, proactive engagement in class discussions, positive attitude, and excellent communication and problem-solving abilities.

Amalbek Bekpulatov demonstrated exceptional analytical skills in both Budgeting and Financial Management and Company Management Simulation courses. His ability to quickly grasp financial concepts and apply them to real-world scenarios was truly remarkable. He consistently provided insightful analyses and offered well-reasoned solutions to challenging problems. For instance, in the Company Management Simulation, he was instrumental in developing and implementing a successful financial strategy that led his team to outperform their competitors.

Furthermore, Amalbek Bekpulatov was always an active and engaged participant in class discussions. He consistently asked thoughtful questions and offered valuable contributions, demonstrating a curiosity and a desire to learn. His positive attitude and strong communication skills fostered a collaborative learning environment, and he was always willing to help his classmates and was able to manage it.

Despite the demanding nature of his schedule, which included both full-time employment and his studies, he was able to keep his academic performance on a higher level compared to other students. He demonstrated exceptional time management skills and a strong work ethic. He enthusiastically prepared for each class, ensuring that he was well-versed in the material and ready to contribute meaningfully to the discussion. This dedication to his studies, coupled with his inherent abilities, makes him an outstanding candidate for your program.

I believe that Bilkent University offers Amalbek Bekpulatov an excellent opportunity to study at a top-ranking institution with a high reputation, that provides a high-quality education. Studying in Turkey at Bilkent University will undoubtedly further boost Amalbek Bekpulatov's mindset and skills, allowing him to reach his maximum potential.

I am confident that Amalbek Bekpulatov will be a valuable addition to your program. He possesses the intellectual curiosity, strong work ethic, and personal qualities necessary to succeed in graduate studies and beyond. I highly recommend him without reservation.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

Bahromjon Urmanov
